CAUSE

On November 17, 2010, the undersigned officer was notified by Pioneer Counseling that Ms. Weaver had submitted a urinalysis sample that tested presumptively positive for cocaine. The following day Ms. Weaver reported to the probation office and admitted to the undersigned officer that she had consumed cocaine. In addition, Ms. Weaver informed this officer that she was no longer living at her last reported address but was staying with friends.

Ms. Weaver has been cooperative and honest with the undersigned officer regarding the violation behavior. She was advised of potential consequences for the above violations and cautioned that any further violations would result in an appearance before Your Honor. Ms. Weaver signed the attached waiver of hearing after being advised of her right to a hearing and assistance of counsel.

It is hoped the above modification meets the expectations of the Court. Ms. Weaver is amenable to continued supervision and treatment if recommended. Should Your Honor require a different course of action please advise the undersigned.
